Bishop Carlos Mendoza from Venezuela, along with an airline pilot from Rockford, IL, and a plumber from Minneapolis recently visited our farm. Bishop Mendoza wanted to visit a U.S. farm, as he has a farm background in Venezuela. He did some tillage with auto-steer tractor, visited Dorrich Dairy, combined soybeans, and visited the CHS Elevator. He was amazed with all the technology. This was quite different from the farm back home, consisting of a few chickens, Alpacas, and a couple of Jersey cows. The blessing over our noon meal and harvest crew was very special, even though none of us understood a word of it!
