At our last meeting we paid bills to: Lakes Area Chamber, Uptown Florist, Pope County Tribune, Toms Market and Supreme per Capita. We also gave a donation to Morning Glory Gardens.

Terry Duhn, representing Morning Glory Gardens, gave a presentation at the January meeting. The gardens were started in the mid-60's by Ed Barsness. They have been maintained by mostly volunteers and they are currently improving the walkways to be more handicap accessible. Anyone interested in helping maintain the gardens, or donating to this cause please call Terry at 32-292-1668.

Members, please keep selling your Hawaiian Raffle tickets. This is one of our main fundraisers of the year so please purchase or sell your tickets. Also, return your sold tickets to KC Council #5727 PO Box 116 Glenwood, MN 56334. Or you can give them to Kevin Marthaler or me before Sunday, February 16. Thank you to everyone for your participation in this very worth fundraiser. We will be drawing the winners for the Hawaiian Raffle at Sacred Heart on Sunday, February 16. Any member who is interested in attending the drawing should be at Margaret Mary Hall by approximately 12noon.

St. John's University is hosting the annual Diocesan Men's Conference "Dare to Hope" on Saturday, February 22, from 8:30 – 4:00pm. The deadline to register is Wednesday, February 12. Check the bulletin for details.

40 Cans for Lent starts on Ash Wednesday, March 5. We have been fortunate to make this a tremendous fundraiser for our local food shelf. Please help in any way you can again this year. Look for drop-off containers at all three churches. Remember all monetary donations are doubled during the month of March.
